Friends of Library Report: Grateful Giving went well made over $8,500 for that event. They have $22,000 in account currently.

Old Business:

1. Bookmobile: Staff have been working on getting color and theme ideas. Committee just needs to pick what color options they want to go with then we will move on the theme and planning the outside wrap. The company is coming beginning of February to look at the pavilion to ensure the build will ~~fix~~ fit at delivery.
2. CD Update: Jamie Gorby made a motion to allow Gretchen Brewster to shop for the CD maturing in February 2026 and invest in the best interest of the library, supported by Jeremy Korpala.

Carried

3. Damage to Pavilion: Finance Committee voted to turn ~~into~~ in to insurance company. Deanna has talked with insurance and also the company completing the replacement of doors. Down payment has been made for the doors.

Jeremy Korpala made a motion that we seek restitution for the insurance deductible and up to one year no trespassing, supported by Kathy Methner.

Not Carried

Kathy Methner made a motion that we seek restitution for the insurance deductible and up to one year no trespassing along with leaving final decision to director after consulting with prosecuting attorney supported by Ashley Whalen. Carried
